WASHINGTON, June 9.—The situation in the Philippines is described by Gen. Otis in the following cablegram:

MANILA, June 8.—Adjutant General to Washington: Report of the Moro rebellion province was to drive insurgents into mountains, capturing Antipolo and other towns in that section with point of land projecting into bay. They retreated and scattered before our troops. Losses four killed and few wounded; our men mostly slight. City of Mororan evacuated only on land route on bay. Garrisoned, all other troops withdrawn. Residents prohibit all contact with rebels. Friendship, ask protection; large number refuses to enter Manila; refuse, a city population increasing too rapidly. Leading natives throughout land, in possession of arms, demand permission to send families to Manila. Considered only place of personal security.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Gen. Otis cables as follows regarding the return of soldiers:

MANILA, June 8.—Adjutant General to Washington: Oregon request to defer time of departure until 12th; will leave for Portland on transports Ohio and Colorado. Sixth infantry will be relieved California; at Negros, Hancock sails in few days with 2000

MASHI, June 9.—The United States gunboat Albacore, which sailed for San Francisco by way of Nagasaki, Japan, with long service of fleet men and from the various American war ships.

The ship Oregon will soon be stationed at Dagupan, in the Gulf of Lingayen, on blockade duty.

The United States gunboat Albacore, which sailed from the Philippines on June 1, for San Francisco, under the command of Ensign W. H. Standley, has captured three sailing vessels, and one steamer.

The three sailing vessels, which are these boats (of the Albany class) are now in commission and are now doing good service in the shallow waters of the Philippines.

Favorable reports are still being received from the party of 15 Americans belonging to the gunboat Yorktown, headed by Lieut. J. C. Gilmore, of that ship, who were captured by the Japanese not far from Balabac. The pri-

An Excellent Combination

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a druggist and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a dozent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Hancock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by J. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.
